Summary

My passion for learning is diverse and dynamic. Currently, I am enrolled in a Private Pilot Ground School with the Museum of Flight / Puget Sound Skills Center / Raisbeck Aviation High School, actively pursuing my ambition to become a licensed pilot. Additionally, my enthusiasm for languages drives me to connect with people and cultures worldwide. As a musician, I perform both Western Music and Indian/Bengali classical music, further broadening my cultural horizons. These varied pursuits in aviation, linguistics, and music reflect my commitment to continuous personal growth and development.

I am always looking to learn new things - especially in relation languages, sports, and music!

Human Resources Intern
July 2024 - Present (1 month)
Marlboro, New Jersey, United States

During my internship as an HR Intern, I honed my communication and organizational skills in a fast-paced academic environment. I played a key role in ensuring the smooth operation of the tutoring program by providing support to tutors, students, and faculty.

- Facilitated communication between tutors, students, and professors.
- Responded to inquiries and requests in a timely and professional manner.
- Maintained a high level of organization to ensure program efficiency.
- Worked independently and took initiative to complete assigned tasks.
- Demonstrated adaptability and a willingness to learn new skills.

Cultural Harmony Initiative (hiring HS interns)

Global Music Education/Editorial Intern

July 2024 - Present (1 month)

As a Music Education/Editorial Intern at this organization, I write weekly educational posts on international music and current music-related events, with the freedom to choose topics that inspire me and our audience. I have the opportunity to research and curate engaging content for the company's newsletter, keeping our readers informed and entertained. My strong writing and research skills allow me to distill complex information into compelling, easy-to-understand content. This role has been an incredible opportunity to amplify my voice in the music industry while gaining valuable experience and contributing to a dynamic team passionate about global music education.
